This matter is before the court on the motion for an extension of time by defendant Tabatha N. Ashburn (Ashburn) (Filing No. 34). Ashburn seeks an additional thirty days in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted

IT IS ORDERED:

Defendant Ashburn's motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 34) is granted. Ashburn is given until on or before July 30, 2012, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between July 2, 2012, and July 30, 2012, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)

DATED this 2nd day of July, 2012.
